

MARY AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS

“...[A]nd a sword will pierce your own soul too.” So said faithful, patient Simeon to the mother of our infant Lord (Luke 2: 35b). How many times was the prophecy fulfilled before Mary stood at the foot of the cross? Join us for a Lenten biblical journey tracing Mary’s steps from Nazareth to Calvary and beyond. How did the Theotokos, the God-bearer, bear her sorrow? Together we will turn to Scripture and art to travel with her in imagination from cradle to cross. How can her faith inspire ours? How can we also incarnate the Word? How can we survive Good Friday sorrow to experience Easter joy? Includes prayer dialogue and journaling suggestions.
