You Don't Have to Die to Experience Your True Home: The Gifts of Near-Death Experiences

Near-death experiences are common, well-documented, and universal. They typically result in rapid spiritual growth. The stages of a near-death experiences parallel and inform many issues in spiritual companioning, including reflection upon one's life and purpose, and accompanying those who are dying or who have lost a loved one. Simply exposing ourselves to the healing love and wisdom of NDEs can profoundly change us and those whom we companion. This workshop will include experiential processes and guided prayer experiences.

Presenters: Dennis Linn, M.Div., Sheila Fabricant Linn, M.Div., Matt Linn, SJ

The Linns work together as a team, integrating physical, emotional and spiritual wholeness, previously as hospital chaplains and therapists. They have given retreats and taught courses on healing in over sixty countries and in many universities and hospitals, including a course to Medical Doctors accredited by the American Medical Association. They are authors of 22 books, which have sold over a million copies in English and other languages, including their most recent The Gifts of Near-Death Experiences.
