

Upper Room Spiritual Center
Neptune, NJ
Fourteenth Annual Spirituality Conference
Featuring

Joyce Rupp

Joyce Rupp, a member of the Servants of Mary community, describes herself as a “spiritual midwife”, one who assists others in birthing an ever fuller and deeper faith life. Her ministry includes writing, international retreats and conferences, spiritual direction, and co-directing The Institute of Compassionate Presence. Joyce is the award-winning author of numerous popular books which have been published in eight languages. Her professional education includes degrees in English, Religious Education, and Transpersonal Psychology. She has been a volunteer for Hospice for fourteen years.

OPEN THE DOOR: A JOURNEY TO THE TRUE SELF

This Spirituality Conference, a day of prayerful reflection, is based on Joyce Rupp’s book, Open the Door, in which she invites participants to take a journey inward. The symbolic door of the heart bears a similarity to physical doors in that it, too, opens and closes. Our heart-door opens inward to the deepest, truest part of who we are. There we will find the inherent goodness seeded in us at our birth. The door then opens outward to the world where we bring this giftedness. As Joyce explores aspects of opening the door, she will invite participants to quiet reflection and small group dialogue.

Saturday, November 7, 2009 ~ 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Place: Georgian Court University~ Sponsored by the Upper Room Spiritual Center

Fee: $65~$5 late fee after October 30th. For more information please contact
The Upper Room
at 732-922-0550 or office@theupper-room.org
Registrations not accepted until July 15, 2009.